EASTERN DATES TO AUGUST 5

EASTERN STATES

Later from North Carolina

WASHINGTON August [illegible] [illegible] telegram [illegible] North Carolina [illegible] the State by a majority reduced from [illegible] were calculated

NEW YORK August A [illegible] special to the Herald gives returns [illegible] nearly all points in North Carolina [illegible] the general [illegible] Democrats assert that [illegible] is elected by [illegible] 600 The Republicans claim the same for Caldwell

On Saturday at midnight sixty three counties so [illegible] Republican gains [illegible]

A later dispatch states that seventy one counties give Caldwell a gain of 2[illegible] over the vote of 1870 leaving 2 [illegible] to be overcome by the Republicans in the remaining twenty one counties

The [illegible] says that the returns are not sufficient to assure a Republican victory but show that the Democratic reports are exaggerated It concedes the election of five Democratic Congressmen and acknowledges the defeat of Settle

RALEIGH August 4 —Official and partial returns from seventy five counties reduce the Democratic majority of 1870 to some 2 000 The remaining seventeen counties are mostly small, and will not materially change the figures Republicans concede the State by 1 500 or 2 000 majority Still intense interest is felt in the result

Trouble on the Texas Border

BROWNSVILLE August 2 —A Herald special says the United States Commission is in session There is much excitement on the Mexican side Some interesting developments have been shown before the Commission as to Mexicans in Texas It is supposed that agriculturists are actually assisting cattle thieves The efforts of the Texan officers to recover before Mexican authorities have proven useless Cattle stealing has been on the increase since the rebellion The thieves seize and detain passers by until the raids succeed Foreign merchandise in bond here for Mexico prior to July 1st is allowed to enter the interior of Mexico under the old tariff rates Lieutenant Burke of the State mounted police gave evidence before the Commission of an appalling record of murders of numbers of army officers soldiers and couriers who were killed for plunder State officials and Custom house officers have been killed and their bodies mangled and men have been killed within Brownsville Officers were besieged at the mouth of the Rio Grande and murdered by parties crossing in full daylight Nothing is safe from the thieves who are armed with Spencer and Winchester rifles Officials are shot at daily A drover had 500 head of cattle which were stolen and driven over the river within eight or ten miles of Brownsville Taunts were thrown back across the river by the thieves that they would take as many cattle as they wanted State officials claiming cattle in Camargo were refused possession, and the cattle were rebranded The inspectors are forced to register the newest brands The influence of Cortinas is all powerful with the Mexicans in Texas A war of races is inevitable Insult and disgrace are heaped on private parties and the general feeling is that they must protect themselves Residents of lonely ranches are afraid to testify in open Court

Grant Meeting at Saratoga

SARATOGA August 4 —Prof Langston of Washington addressed an immense out door meeting last night

The Cuban Privateer at Newport

NEW YORK August 4 —A Newport dispatch states that the Marshal accompanied by Capt Richie of the cutter Moccasin went aboard the Pioneer yesterday and took charge of her by order of President Grant, for violation of neutrality laws Lt Chaveron, a Cuban, demanded of the Marshal papers in the name of the Cuban republic They were read by Richie who indorsed them, and informed the Lieutenant that he recognized the Marshal's authority Chaveron protested in the name of the republic He fired a gun threw his sword overboard and nailed his colors to the mast Officers and crew left the vessel in the hands of the Marshal The U S officers unloaded the guns The Pioneer will be docked and dismantled The case will be brought before the court at Providence on the 12th inst

Ku Klux Cases

NEW YORK August 4 —It is stated that Gerrit Smith has personally investigated the cases of Ku Klux imprisoned in Albany Penitentiary and has petitioned the President to pardon and release three as evidently victims of circumstances

Miscellaneous

ST LOUIS August 4 —The strike of coal miners in St Clair county Illinois is practically ended Several companies conceded to the demands of the operatives

CINCINNATI August 4 —German Catholics to the number of 5[illegible] assembled at Mozart Hall this evening Resolutions of indignation were passed at the expulsion of Jesuits from Germany

WEST INDIES

HAVANA August 2 —The official Gazette acknowledges that the rebels dispersed a portion of a Spanish regiment recently but were subsequently routed by a flying column of Spaniards

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS

There will be enough wild grapes in Texas this year to make more wine than was ever manufactured in France in one year

A Boston man claims to have the oldest book in America It is a New Testament over 350 years old Rather an old New Testament that

There is a rumor that the New York Herald, elated with its success in Africa will soon start an expedition to Asia to fix the disputed location of the Garden of Eden

The last of the Mohicans may soon glory in the rights of citizenship The Connecticut Senate has passed a bill giving the Mohican Indians in that State the political rights which other citizens of that State enjoy

A man and woman were recently divorced at Hillsdale Michigan and now the neighbors are very much interested to find that they are courting again Probably they found courting pleasanter than being married and the only way of getting back to that blissful exercise was through the divorce suit

How dangerous to defer those momentous reformations which the conscience is solemnly preaching to the heart! If they are neglected the difficulty and indisposition are increasing every month The mind is receding degree after degree from the warm and hopeful zone till at last it will enter the arctic circle and become fixed in relentlessness and eternal ice —John Foster

There is many a woman I think whose life, passed in the household, is filled with fears and anxieties and oftentimes with troubles which her pride never suffers her to express except toward God I believe that there is many and many a woman who endures uninterrupted trials who is shut up to herself and yet is growing in richness and strength, and inward beauty being sustained through all her dreary pilgrimage by the power of Christian hymns —Beecher

The illness of Gratz Brown being reported to be caused by soft shell crabs one of those changes in the meaning of English words which sometimes occur is likely to ensue The Missouri De[illegible] remarks that the title of John B Gough lectures henceforth will be soft shell crabs and that the sale of soft shell crabs has been prohibited in Maine and Massachusetts It further adds that Long John Wentworth, of Chicago always addresses audiences under the influence of soft shell crabs and that ex Senator Saulsbury once came very nearly being expelled from the Senate for excessive use of the same Gratz Brown s stomach seems to be susceptible and as there are indications of cholera this summer he had better profit by experience and be careful how he butters his watermelon next time

Most of the shadows that cross our path through life are caused by standing in our own light

Prosecutions in Ireland

NEW YORK August 5 —Advices say that the Attorney General for Ireland had announced in the British House of Commons, on the 23d ult., the purpose of the Government to prosecute twenty four Roman Catholic clergymen in Ireland for alleged participation in the Galway affair

Egypt and Abyssinia.

PARIS August 5 —A dispatch from Suez reports [illegible] 000 Egyptians advancing on Abyssinia with a view to conquest The Emperor Kassai is marching to meet them but it is thought his defeat is certain and that Magdala will eventually fall into the hands of the invaders

Progress at Geneva

GENEVA, August 5 —It is now expected that the Board of Arbitration will complete their work within a month The adjournment of last week was due to the necessity of communicating with the Cabinet at Washington

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 5 —Crotty alias Short Haired Jimmy having died of the wound inflicted by Russell alias Robinson, the Deputy Marshal at Salt Lake in Cadies saloon, on Friday night, Russell was arraigned in the Police Court this [illegible] committed on charge of murder in first degree

About a quarter of three this morning policeman McCaffey and local officer Bernard saw a light in a parlor saloon owned by Henry Corbyn 720 Market street near Dupont and supposing that a burglary was being committed went over cautiously and discovered that arson was being committed The walls had been smeared with coal oil and fired and every arrangement made for a first class fire The place was insured for $3 000 Corbyn was arrested this morning on a charge of arson

John Murphy, for highway robbery committed on a boy, was committed for trial to day

Ship Pride of the West from Boston, is reported off the Farralones Saturday last, befogged and hunting for the Golden Gate

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 5 —The attempt of one of the Buisley Bros to make an ascension on a trapeze suspended from a balloon failed at Woodward's garden yesterday, the balloon failing to become inflated His brother fell at the City of Mexico while performing such a feat and was killed instantly

The Pacific Coast Gas and Water Co, to operate in the Pacific States and Territories and elsewhere capital $[illegible] 000,000 has been incorporated

It is now certain that the new opposition, as the original Diamond Discovery Mining Co organized on Saturday and has incorporated, will send a strong expedition to southwestern Arizona, immediately to dispossess the Company first organized if it is in possession of the ground first discovered by Miner and his associates last year

Coming in—bark Lady H [illegible] 19 days from Glasgow to H Land

Still a third Diamond Co to be called the El Paso Diamond and Gold Co , is being organized It is expected that the party it sends out will be under the command of an officer of the American Legion who served in Mexico in the campaign against Maximilian

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

OREGON CITY August 5 —Arthur Charman, seventeen years of age, son of Thomas Charman of this city, was drowned to day while in bathing with a number of other boys His body was rescued soon after, and every effort made to restore life but without success

MARVELS OF THE INSECT WORLD —The Spectator in its notes of M Touchet s work, The Universe says 'Man generally flatters himself that his anatomy is about the highest effort of Divine skill yet that of the insect is far more complicated No portion of our organism can compare with the proboscis of the common fly Man can boast 270 muscles Lyonet who spent his whole life in watching one species of caterpillar discovered in it 4 000 The common fly has 8 000 eyes and certain butterflies 25 000 M Touchet treats it as an established fact that so fine are the sensory organs of ants that they converse by means of their antennæ Consequently the strength and activity of insects far surpass ours in proportion In the whole field of natural science there is nothing more astounding than the number of times a fly can flap its wings in a second it must in that period of time vibrate its wings six or seven hundred times But in rapid flight we are required to believe that 3 600 is a moderate estimate

REMEDY FOR TOOTHACHE —Powdered alum, two drachms spirits of ether seven drachms, mix and apply to the tooth Another Chloroform one ounce, alum, five grains morphine three grains mix and apply with cotton

POLITICAL SLANDERS REFUTED

In a great speech at Cooper Institute New York on the 31 July Senator Conkling refuted the whole brood of slanders against Gen Grant which have been hatched in the Liberal nest during the last two years We condense a few points as follows

GIFT TAKING

Gen McClellan begins the list of largely rewarded Generals His active service ended before the war was over and his Democratic admirers prior to nominating him for the Presidency presented him a costly house and a large purse amounting in all to a hundred thousand dollars

To Sherman Sheridan Farragut and Grant large sums were given To Stanton s family and to Rawlin s were given more than a hundred thousand each Were these things dishonorable Was it wrong for Gen Grant to accept such gifts The charge is an insult to the nation who witnessed and applauded the proceeding It is an imputation upon those who gave as much as upon him who received It can not have been dishonorable or improper for him to accept a gift, without being dishonorable and improper to offer it

Yet gift taking, forsooth is paraded by political Pharisees One thing is noticeable, the men who screech about gift taking, are those who never gave a cent, and who were never openly offered a cent—certainly not for any honorable service rendered to their country The charge that Grant accepted any gift after he became President, or after he was nominated, is wholly false He has accepted nothing of value since his first nomination—not even a carriage and horses—although Lincoln and Buchanan and Pierce and Taylor and other Presidents did accept carriages and horses after their election

THE PRESIDENT RICHES

The ' Liberal ' idea of decency and manly war forces me to speak of another thing, which will grate upon your ears The political scavengers pretend that the President has grown rich as President by illicit gain, and they parade his property by millions We have fallen on sorry times when the Chief Magistrates of the country, with a fame so great and pure, must give account of his private property in answer to electioneering falsehoods The President would disdain to do it, I have no authority to do it, I do not assume to do it on his behalf but on behalf of the party and the cause he represents I venture to state the facts

At Galena where he tanned hides,' he owned a house and during the war he invested the savings from his pay in some lots in Chicago and in some shares of street railway stock

Mrs Grant inherited her share in her father s farm in Missouri and they bought out the other heirs with a portion of the hundred thousand dollars presented by citizens of New York This one hundred thousand dollars also paid for a house in Washington, which was subsequently sold to Gen Sherman and a cottage and grounds were bought at Long Branch, after the Washington house was sold. The people of Philadelphia presented a house, which rents for about two thousand dollars a year This completes the property of the President, with one exception.

Some years ago he purchased ten thousand dollars in nominal value, of the stock of the Seneca Stone Company, to this day it has paid nothing, partly because the President has interfered to prevent Seneca stone being adopted as building material for the Government One of the plans submitted for the new State Department required the use of Seneca stone, and, because of his being a stockholder, the President refused to allow the plan to be even considered The other stockholders complained of this, saying they were punished because the President owned stock , the President replied, expressing his regret, and saying that he would sell his stock or give it away, but for the imputations cast upon him by political opponents because of his ownership, he deemed it unsuitable even to seem to defer to such calumny by parting with his stock

Here then, is the sum total of the President s possessions and they embrace no cigars smuggled in the dispatch bag no costly works of art or rare wines bestowed by foreigners, no testimonials sent from other lands, in gratitude for efforts to tarnish the fair fame of his country Every dollar he owns came from sources open as day, and every month of his Presidency has made him poorer than the month before and yet the country and Congress are disgraced by innuendoes and poisonous hints that vast wealth has been amassed in the Presidential office

RELATIVES IN OFFICE

Since President Grant came in, but nine persons in all, connected in the remotest degree with him or with his wife have held political office under the United States

I have a list of them and do not speak without information Nine is the total number in political office This does not include a son of the President sent as a pupil to West Point long before his father became President, nor does it include his brother in-law Dent who has long held a commission in the army by the same tenure under which Sherman and Sheridan and every other officer of the army holds his place, and which the President has no more power to give or take away than the man in the moon

Of the nine relatives or connections in office, two were appointed by Andrew Johnson viz the President s father, Postmaster at Covington, Ky and his brother in law the Rev Mr Cramer Consul at Leipsic Mr Cramer was transferred from Leipsic to Denmark by President Grant, on the recommendation of Bishop Simpson, Bishop Janes and many other well known persons friends of Mr Cramer Being the brother in law of the President, he of course, became a mark for ' liberal abuse, and was charged with drinking beer and being refused membership of a social club

But now comes the Cincinnati Methodist Conference about as respectable a body as has met in Cincinnati lately and certifies after full investigation, the utter falsity of the charges Their report is fortified by letters from Copenhagen and by statements of the official journal and other newspapers there, indignantly repelling the aspersions cast at Mr Cramer and pronouncing him a blameless officer and man

Deducting Jesse R Grant and M J Cramer appointed by Johnson seven instances of relatives in political office remain and of those but two were in truth and in fact appointed by the President, as I will show you

Orlando H Ross a cousin of the President holds a clerkship under the Third Auditor of the Treasury He was a soldier in the war and Gen Logan, as he stated in the Senate procured his appointment at the Treasury Department without the knowledge of the President who, in fact never heard of it until he read it in a newspaper This leaves six and of these four hold local offices viz George W Dent, Appraiser at San Francisco James F Casey Collector at New Orleans one a brother and the other a brother in law of Mrs Grant Peter Casey Postmaster at Vicksburg Miss a brother of a brother in law of Mrs Grant and George B Johnson Assessor of the Third District of Ohio, who married a third cousin of the President These men hold local offices and were selected and put forward, as has been universal in both political parties for 50 years by the local Representatives

When the member of Congress from a district certifies the character of an applicant for a postoffice or any other office local in his district and recommends his selection, the practice of the Government has always been to rely in fact upon such representations, holding the member of Congress responsible to the Government and to his constituents, if he obtains unfit appointments

It was in this way that the four persons just named were selected the President having no part in the matter, if he believed the applicants fit and worthy except to consult the wishes of the people made known through their representatives or else to overrule their wishes upon the ground that it might be better for himself not to run the risk of having the matter some time or other flung in his face

Two appointments remain and upon these the President did undoubtedly exercise his own choice and his own judgment.

The first is Alexander Sharp, a connection of Mrs Grant who was appointed Marshal of the District of Columbia This officer is virtually a member of the President's household—he receives company with the family, introduces visitors, and generally helps along. For these reasons some relative or friend of the President s family has always been found for the position

The remaining relative is Silas Hudson, Minister to Guatemala He is cousin to the President Iowa, the State in which he lives, had the mission to Guatemala before President Grant came in, Fitz Henry Warren held it, and on his retirement Iowa [illegible] still and presented Mr Hudson, who is described as an able and accomplished [illegible] The President might have refused to [illegible] him, without giving just offense to the Republicans of Iowa, because he [illegible] taken a man from some other State, but he did appoint him, and thus he furnished the needy Liberals ' with one awful example.

POLITICAL NOTES

Judge Horace P Biddle, of the Eighth Congressional District of Indiana, who was nominated for Congress on the Greeley ticket [illegible] the Hon J N Tyner, the regular Re[illegible] candidate, has declined the nomination, and goes for Grant

Says the New York Evening Post "It is [illegible] fully well known that Mr Greeley's kno[illegible] of character is of the smallest Of this we [illegible] no better evidence than the fact that he is allowing himself in the present campaign to be [illegible] aged by such men as George Saunders, his [illegible] at Chappaqua, and John Cochrane.

Justice Davis, of Illinois, supports Grant. As consistent with his high position, he [illegible] part in the present contest, but is, neverth[illegible] very frank and unreserved in the expression of the opinion that the election of Greeley would be detrimental to the business interests of the country For this reason he prefers Grant

An Erie (Pa) dispatch of July 17th says A Grant and Wilson ratification meeting is [illegible] held here to night It out numbers six to one the Greeley meeting held here last Saturday. A considerable number of those who took part in the Greeley meeting have since declared for [illegible] The only Democratic paper in this county has not yet hoisted Greeley's name It bitterly [illegible] his nomination

The several Southern States named below gave Republican majorities as follows in the last general election which occurred in each

Arkansas [illegible]
Louisiana [illegible]
Mississippi [illegible]
Florida [illegible]
South Carolina [illegible]

All these States may be carried [illegible] Grant and Wilson.

The New York Times says a Southern [illegible] the State of Mississippi expresses the firm [illegible] tion that the South is now likely to get the [illegible] of their slaves lost in the late war; that [illegible] Greeley was in favor of justice b[illegible] done [illegible] and that the South was bound to go for [illegible] Greeley for President. He says that he and his father had each lost about $11,[illegible] worth of [illegible] by the emancipation proclamation, and this sum he hoped to get if Greeley was elected.

The New York Tribune is now daily [illegible] such letters as the following, [illegible] Manchester, Conn " To the Proprietors of the New York Tribune The undersigned, whose subscriptions to the semi weekly Tribune expire October next, would be obliged to you if you would stop sending the paper from this date. [illegible] staunch Republicans we have no int[illegible] in a paper that denounces the Republican party. (Signed) George A Easton, Daniel McCaw, P. S Piper, George F Rich

The reaction against Greeley in the South is thus indicated by the Chronicle of Augusta Ga We have seen it more than once stated in Northwestern journals that the South was enth[illegible] for Greeley This is a grave error. So far as we are able to judge, there is no enthusiasm among the people, for Greeley and Brown And it is right that there should not be There is nothing in the history of either of these men which should endear them to our people On the contrary, we have been greatly sinned against by both of [illegible]

Whether Greeley sold himself to Tammany in July, 1872, or in October, 1871, [illegible] to the Philadelphia Bulletin to be a matter of minor consideration It believes him to be quite capable of any political intrigue looking to his own advancement, as his whole record clearly shows, and it says "It is evident that while the soreheads of Cincinnati and the Tammany Rebels of Baltimore have been moved only by 'Anything to beat Grant!' Horace Greeley has, long ago made up his mind to stoop to 'Anything to be President '

The New York Times says " There can be no doubt that Horace Greeley has been the most inveterate trafficker in office in this country. His applications for office incumber every department in Washington, and he has recommended more bad men to office than any politician of his time, except Fenton, whose supporters are all drawn from the people of his own class Greeley's office seeking has been a mania with him for years past We shall give some instances shortly of the rascals he has contrived, at one time or another to saddle upon the country "

The Louisville Ledger which supports Greeley, in an article headed Have Done with Shams," speaks as follows of the ridiculous fabrication that the Greeley farce is the work of the people We are tired of the silly twaddle that the Greeley ticket is the result of a movement—a ground swell they call it—of the people, and that the politicians had no part in the matter, that Greeley and Brown were nominated by the masses the vox populi independent of, and in spite of the politicians The truth is that with the Greeley movement the people had absolutely nothing to do Traverse the land from ocean to ocean, and from the lakes to the gulf, and not one man in ten can be found who will say that Horace Greeley was his personal choice in this contest '

FINANCIERING —The Troy, N Y , Times has the following paragraph

It will be allowed that there is great fitness in Mr Fenton s criticising the financial administration of General Grant The distinguished politician has been trained in that school which insists upon the most exact honesty in public officers and the most unfailing fidelity in all fiduciary relations He was always so select in the choice of his companions and subordinates and so high toned in all his financial transactions that his strictures will command the most unreserved confidence He said a great deal at Albany about Grant but nothing about Gould and Fisk or the $20 000 he received from them to help him at Chicago

Later from North Carolina

Later returns from North Carolina show better results than we could have anticipated before the election. The State is extremely close. Republican gains over the last general election, that of 1870, are very considerable, perhaps quite sufficient to take the State from the Democrats. In any event their majority is so far reduced and so very meager as to deprive that party of the prestige of a substantial victory. Indeed there is every reason to hope that the State will go for Grant in November, when the issues as to the Presidency are put to the close and final test. It appears that the Democrats have elected five and the Republicans three members of Congress. By the last Legislature the State was so gerrymandered as to throw most of the Republican counties into two districts with the idea of giving the Democrats the remainder. In the present Congress the Republicans have two members from North Carolina and the Democrats the balance. Will the Greeleyites, contemplating the present result, be good enough to show what progress they are making in getting control of the Government?

The result in North Carolina is really a most hopeful one for Grant and Wilson. It proves that the Republican party can make gains over the vote of 1870. It shows that the "Liberals," so-called, have brought no strength to the Democracy. It establishes the fact that the colored vote of the country will go solid for the Republican nominees, and makes it certain that a number of Southern States, where the colored population bears a larger proportion to the white than in North Carolina, will give Grant and Wilson their electoral vote. It even renders it probable that North Carolina will go for Grant and Wilson in November. The result in the old North State cannot but be construed as extremely favorable to the Republican cause. The entire South has from the first been claimed for Greeley. North Carolina dispels that illusion.

Business Interests

Few men of sound judgment suppose that Horace Greeley will be elected President. A vast majority of those who represent the business enterprise of the country feel that such a result as his election would be detrimental to business interests. The very fact of Greeley's nomination has already produced unfavorable effects on currency and trade. Though few imagine that he will be elected, yet the bare possibility of such a result disturbs business interests. A considerable rise in gold is one of the first manifestations of this disturbance. The timidity of capital long ago became a proverb. Though most business men deem Greeley's election out of the question, still the idea that such a thing is within the range of possibilities produces its effect on money and business.

The views of large numbers of business men on this subject are set forth in a trade circular recently issued by Messrs Pope & Co, dealers in iron and metals, Pearl street, New York City. In this circular they say:

> The metal trade continues very quiet. The nomination of Mr. Greeley has had a depressing effect on business and has filled the minds of financial men with apprehension for the affairs of next season should he be unfortunately elected. His well known "on to Richmond" measures of specie payments, letting go all the reserve specie and currency in the treasury, and declaring by act of Congress or by proclamation a return to specie payments the next day, his hatred so vituperatively expressed of the trading classes, his association with Tweed and the deposed Ring leaders here, all point in his success to disaster and to the complete disorganization of society—disorganization being his pet doctrine, and "what he knows" of it his favorite practice.

There is no doubt that the views of the business men of the country are those which are set forth above. Democratic and Republican financial and commercial journals alike express doubts and misgivings as to the effect of Greeley's election, should that event by any means occur. The New York Evening Post is no admirer of the present Administration, indeed the Post was one of the chief founders and promoters of the "Liberal" movement. But it now says:

> There is every reason to expect the most serious financial disturbances if Mr Greeley is elected. There is a point on which Mr Greeley is understood to hold views of the most extraordinary character, which if he should carry them into execution, would involve the country in a frightful crash. The Tribune (and this, too, was before Mr Greeley withdrew from it) has continually and persistently put forth the idea that the only thing necessary to bring about a resumption of specie payments is to post a notice on the Treasury doors announcing that on a certain day specie payments shall be resumed, and presto the thing is done. The gold with which to perform this amazing feat is what the Tribune calls the "surplus" gold. But everybody knows that this surplus is only a balance, which is no real surplus, but comes into the Treasury one day and goes out of it the next. It would be no joke to resume specie payment in this way. The immediate effect of it would be a financial panic from all changes of this kind we are likely to be completely exempt if Gen Grant remains in office. Indeed if the Administration will only let gold alone and neither contract nor expand, in short do just what Gen. Grant's Administration has been doing, the elasticity of trade and the increase of population alone will bring gold to par, just as it has been brought from 300 to 112.
> In reply to all this it is said, "But we know what the defects of Grant's Administration have been, Greeley's Administration has not been tried, and he may be better." Now the fact is that Gen Grant has been in office for four years, while Mr Greeley has been discussing politics in a pretty open manner for forty years under our eyes here in New York. If we don't know him, no one does.

"In this article," as a leading business house of New York observes, "most of the business men of the country find an expression of their fears in the event of Greeley's election."

Since later returns from North Carolina make a Republican victory probable our Democratic brethren here may as well be getting ready to take back the expressions of joy they uttered on Friday last, when they were claiming from twenty to fifty thousand majority. The Herald has been jubilating over an election that is substantially a Republican triumph. We now deem it certain that North Carolina will go for Grant in November. A few hundred majority for either party in this election will make no special difference. Grant is stronger in the South than any other candidate. This result in North Carolina indicates that he will sweep the field there. Democratic enthusiasm over North Carolina has burnt out like an old chimney. We'll quietly take the State ourselves.

The Germans of San Francisco are making arrangements for a Grant meeting, which will soon take place. It is expected to be a great affair. The German Grant and Wilson Club in that city now numbers over seven hundred and is growing daily.

The Colored Man Sees It

The New York Tribune has not so high an opinion of the colored man as it once had. It complains of his obstinacy in sticking to the Republican party, calls him an ignorant negro, says he is stupid and don't know the difference between a million and a thousand. Altogether he is in a frightful state of backwardness and the Tribune, which once championed him, now doubts whether he is qualified to vote. But on the whole it seems that he has a pretty sharp eye in detecting the issues of the contest. To illustrate we present the following from the New York Herald's North Carolina correspondence:

> For instance, I give a specimen interview with a genuine but rather intelligent negro.
>
> "Well, John, who are you going to vote for this time?"
>
> "I'se gwine to vote de 'publican ticket straight out, I is."
>
> "Who will you vote for for President?"
>
> "General Grant and de odder man, what's his name—Grant and Colfax."
>
> "Grant and Wilson, you mean."
>
> "No, sah. I votes de old ticket, I does."
>
> "Why don't you vote for Horace Greeley?"
>
> "Don't know nothin' 'bout dat man. He can't be much friend of de colored people when dese yere white folks vote for him."
>
> "But he's their friend, and always has been."
>
> "No, sah. Dere's no tellin' what he'll do when he gets to be President. I heres dem say he's a gwine to pay dese people for all de niggers what got freed, and den put de balance all back into slavery."
>
> "Who told you that?"
>
> "Nobody mind, sah. I hearn it, and I votes for General Grant, de man what sot us free, what I knows I can pend on."
>
> "But whoever told you that meant to deceive you."
>
> "Yes, sah. I knows all dat, too. I judges folks by de company dey keeps, and when dis man Greeley goes wid de rebs' and 'secesh' I got my opinion on him."
>
> "So then you will vote for Grant?"
> "Yes, sah. I'se boun' to vote for Grant, an' so is de whole colored folks. He's de man what freed us."
>
> You may talk to nine negroes out of ten and propound the same questions and you will invariably receive if not exactly the same replies, certainly substantially the same.

Referring to this the New York Times says:

> Mr Greeley's organ may denounce the colored man as a fool, but most people who read such narratives as the above will come to the conclusion that the freedmen know perfectly well how to take care of their own interests. It is all very well for H. G. to walk into the lion's cage, and say to the blacks: "See, here I am, opening the lions' mouths and playing with their tails, and they don't hurt me. Come along inside; don't be afraid." The colored man sees through the trick and will not put his head in the jaws of the enemy at the invitation of his "only friend," the Democratic candidate.

Compensation for Slaves

In various ways comes the intelligence from the South that many of the Southern ex-slaveholders confidently anticipate obtaining from the General Government compensation for their slaves in case Greeley is elected to the Presidency. They recall his proposition to pay $400,000,000 for them in July, 1864, and ask, If he could make such a proposition then what would prevent him from agreeing to it now? The Galveston (Texas) News, a Greeley organ, in a recent issue, says:

> Though Mr. Greeley has been long and consistently the advocate of emancipation, yet he always admitted the constitutional right of the South to her slave property, the protection of which constituted the most essential preliminary condition to the original formation of the Union. Everybody knows the Union never could have been formed but for this solemn guarantee of slave property in the great compact of union. Hence, Mr. Greeley has always advocated compensation for this property. He looked upon slavery as an evil and an insurmountable obstacle to the prosperity of the country, and he advocated the removal of that evil upon the same principle that private property is forcibly taken when required, in order to facilitate great public improvements, but for which due compensation is made to the owners.

The last general election in North Carolina took place in 1870, when the Democrats carried the State by 4,995 majority, elected two-thirds of the Legislature and five of the seven members of Congress. In 1871 an election was held to decide whether a Convention to amend the Constitution of the State should be called or not. Democrats generally were in favor of such Convention and Republicans generally opposed it. Yet it was not a strict party test. The majority against Convention was 9,345. Such an election does not furnish a basis for comparison. To find a true test we must take the result of the last general election,—that of 1870. Taking this the Republican gains in the present election are very apparent.

On Thursday last the Republican State Convention of California assembled at Sacramento. John B Felton and John F Miller were nominated as Electors for the State at large. C Spreckles of San Francisco, James E Hale of Placer, Jesse O Goodwin of Yuba, and T H Rose of Los Angeles were nominated as Electors for the the several Congressional Districts. For Congress, Second District, H F Page was nominated, for Congress, Fourth District, S O Houghton. John M Coghlan is nominated in the Third District.

Certain people of Republican antecedents who support Greeley insist that by so doing they are supporting the Republican cause in the most effective possible way. But the New York World thinks differently. It says:

> It is a choice between Greeley with a Democratic Cabinet, Congress, and State Governments, and Grant with a Republican Cabinet, Congress and State Governments. Why will the World blab in this way? It may not be prudent to remind Greeley Republicans that they are Democratic catspaws.

It is reported that a council of "crow eaters" of Oregon will assemble in Portland in a short time, to decide whether a final effort shall be made for the mastication and deglutition of the strong meat served up to them, or whether they shall kick the board over and make no further attempt to eat crow.

PLODDING.—Professor Huxley in distributing the prizes at the Charing Cross Medical College qualified his approval of the prize system in these words: "The successful men in this world are not those who went off at a hard gallop, but, if he might use racing phraseology, those who would 'stay.' It often happened that those whose early career was slower and quieter than those of others exhibited a greater amount of wind and tougher staying power and came in at the winning point at last." He urged upon the audience the importance of plodding industry which was often of more service than brilliancy or talent, and of using their Pegasus as a plow horse instead of permitting it to soar aloft.

VARNISH TO PROTECT POLISHED METALS FROM RUSTS.—Dr C Pascher recommends the use of a solution of parafine (one part by weight in three parts of petroleum) as a varnish which may be usefully applied to polished metals, especially as after having brushed this liquid over the surface of the metals they may be gently wiped clean with a soft piece of flannel so as to leave only a very thin film of the varnish yet sufficient for the protection of the polish.

THE CAUSE.—Paul Bert, in an article in Comptus Rendus, ascribes the cause of death of fresh water fishes when placed in salt water to the chlorides present in the latter.

THE TERRITORIES

Kalama is growing. It has lately opened a new restaurant, a tonsorial shop and a wash house.

The N P R R Co has several surveying parties at work examining the various passes of the Cascades east of Puget Sound.

Montana held an election yesterday (August 5th) for Delegate to Congress. Claggett, Republican candidate. Maginnis, Democratic.

Peter [illegible] will erect [illegible] a new [illegible] brick building three stories high with a stone foundation and [illegible] to be [illegible] bank.

T [illegible] Morris, Engineer on the [illegible] Division of the North Pacific Railroad, offers a reward of $250 for evidence that will prove the death or recovery of the body of Henry Steelman, who was lost from Capt Sheets' surveying party, June 19th.

During July the following business was transacted at the Olympia Land Office: Cash sales, number of acres, 6,112; homestead entries, 2,603; homestead final proof 260; declaratory statements 6,112; warrant locations 120; certificates issued on donation claims, 2,050. Total number of acres, 17,127.

Senator Trumbull

This immaculate Liberal Reformer who soured on the Administration and began to cry corruption when President Grant firmly refused to appoint his hoodlum son to an important position is referred to as follows by the Chicago Journal, published at Trumbull's own home. The Journal of July 19th, under the head of "What Trumbull Knows About Bribery," says:

> Lyman Trumbull's personal organ in this city is grieved because the Journal published an elaborate arraignment of its favorite on the charge of malfeasance in sundry and divers matters. It says that the Senator met those charges in the Senate last winter. Yes, he met them, but he did not refute them, and the one of gravest importance he has never denied and can never explain away. While he is racing up and down the State trying to save his Senatorial bacon let him tell his constituents what he knows about bribery as a personal experience. Just to give him a starter or text, we submit the facts in the case. The House of Representatives voted to impeach President Johnson about the middle of February, 1868. The trial was not concluded until the 16th of May. Between those dates Lyman Trumbull received from the Government, as fee in a Government law suit, the snug sum of $10,000, and this too in direct violation of the law which forbids a Senator from acting as a paid agent of the Government. The payments were made as follows:
> | | |
> |---|---|
> | March 7, 1868 | $1,000 |
> | April 6, 1868 | 2,000 |
> | April 23, 1868 | 7,000 |
> | Total | $10,000 |
> The service rendered was merely nominal and the real value received was the vote for acquittal cast three weeks before the final payment. If Trumbull can explain away these facts and show the rendering of actual services to the Government to the value of $10,000 or any other amount, let him do so. The people would like to hear from him on "What I know about bribery." How came Andrew Johnson's Administration to hire him at so extravagant a price to do nothing, or the next thing to it, and how came it that the payments were all made pending the trial? Considering that Trumbull had been one of the first to demand Johnson's impeachment and that he had professed full sympathy with the prosecution, he cannot afford to let this fee record go unexplained.

The "Reformers" evidently need reforming.

The widow's mite in aid of the sufferers from the fire at Chicago appears at last. The story is on this wise, and is told in a letter from Constantinople to the Advance. A native Christian woman in Asia Minor, who belongs to the church at Marsovan, which is under the care of the American Board, hearing her pastor tell the story of the great conflagration started a subscription for relief, and headed it herself with a contribution of five dollars. This woman lives in a mud hovel destitute of table and chairs, and having oiled paper for glass. That such a contribution to the people of one of the youngest of the great cities of the world should be sent from Asia Minor, one of the oldest seats of civilization, is evidence not only of the [illegible] of intelligence, but of the power of Christian sympathy in all parts of the world.

Previous to 1869 the Irish immigration had greatly exceeded the English. In the year 1870 English immigration, as compared to the Irish, was 58 63 to 41 37, and in 1871 as 59 to 41. During the year 1871 it is estimated that 71,926 English came to the United States, of Irish, 65,591, of Scotch 13,271, of other foreigners, 43,521. The immigration of 1872 is largely in excess of 1871, and is from the middle classes—many farmers and mechanics coming, with ample means. Large tracts of lands have been purchased within the past year in Kansas, Iowa and other Western States by wealthy Europeans for the establishment of their sons. There is growing up in the West a class of landed gentry—what is known in Great Britain as gentlemen farmers.

A good man shall have what he needs, not always what he thinks he needs. Providence intends the supply of our necessities, but not of our desires. He will satisfy our wants, but not our wantonness. When a thing is not needful, a man cannot properly be said to want it; when it is needful, a good man shall not be without it. What is not bestowed upon us may not be so beautiful at that time wherein we desire it, for everything is beautiful in its season. He that did not want God's kindness to renew him shall never want God's kindness to supply him; his hand shall not be wanting to give where his heart has been so large in working.—Charnock.

ASPARAGUS FOR RHEUMATISM AND GOUT.—A medical correspondent of an English journal says the advantages of asparagus are not sufficiently estimated by those who suffer from rheumatism and gout. Slight cases of rheumatism are cured in a few days by feeding on this delicious esculent, and more chronic cases are much relieved, especially if the patient carefully avoids all acids, whether in food or beverage. The Jerusalem artichoke has also a similar effect in relieving rheumatism. The heads may be eaten in the usual way, but tea made from leaves of the stalk and drank three or four times a day is a certain remedy, though not equally agreeable.

HOLDING BACK THE MILK.—F. Gross, Gordonville, Va., says in Switzerland a wet rag thrown? laid on the back of a cow that holds back her milk, and is a very good remedy. Another correspondent says a weight laid on the back—as a bag of earth or sand, or a chain in the bag—will make her give her milk. As all the remedies in vogue for this vice relate to an application to the back, there probably may be something in it. We never could succeed in it, and shall be glad to hear more about it from those who have.

Among the terms of peace which Horace Greeley proposed in 1864 was the following: "The Union to pay four hundred million dollars in five per cent United States stock to the late slave States, loyal and secession alike, to be apportioned pro rata according to their slave population respectively by the census of 1860, in compensation for the losses of their loyal citizens by the abolition of slavery."

Of Horace Greeley the Commercial Advertiser says: "More absurd than Sancho Panza, more crotchety than Don Quixote, vain as Narcissus, treacherous as Arnold, a fusion of all the peculiar qualities of all these mythical and actual personages would be requisite to form his double."

CRAMP COLIC.—It is said that two pills of gum camphor swallowed will give relief in twenty minutes.

Sea Side Lotterings

The catalogue of the President's fair cities would be incomplete without one other thing. During ten or twelve weeks of heat and fever and ague at Washington his family go to a cottage at the sea side, and he goes and comes from there to the capital.

It is eight hours from the White House to the cottage, with two mails a day and a telegraph every instant. Nothing can occur, however suddenly demanding his attention, without his being within immediate call, yet this is the occasion of constant hullabaloo. Gov. Hoffman [illegible] this State and resides at Newport [illegible] the summer. Mr James Brooks, though a member of Congress, goes to China and Japan, not returning even when Congress meets. Gen. Jackson used to spend weeks at the Rip Raps in Hampton Roads, where no intelligence could reach him from Washington in days but [illegible] only by special messenger, and where he could not return for days if sent for. No telegraph, railroad, daily mail or even a steamboat [illegible] then. President Adams parted from Massachusetts by a stage ride of thirty days, used to spend weeks at his home. Washington passed much time at Mt Vernon, at [illegible] that was further removed in communicating with the capital then than Long Branch is now.

Rulers in all countries have felt at liberty to tarry a distance from their official residence during a portion of the year, but no examples, experience or common sense stand in the way of the grumblers of Grant.

The public however will be satisfied with one fact, viz., that no instance has yet been discovered or pretended in which anything however small was neglected or left undone because the President was absent. This one fact answers a hurricane of abuse.

Cholera in Berlin

(From the Sacramento Union.)

The New York papers are earnestly counseling the city authorities to cleanse the streets and otherwise prepare for a speedy visitation of the Asiatic cholera, which they think altogether likely to cross the Atlantic this season. Our dispatches to-day state that the disease has made its appearance in Berlin, and that three cases were reported there on Wednesday. It is not a surprise that Berlin should be the first European city outside of Russia to catch the modern plague. As in ancient times all roads led to Rome, so now all roads in Europe lead to the German capital, and are moreover thronged with all classes and conditions of emigrants. Naturally the Russian Boyard from the Volga or the Borysthenes, running away from the cholera in his district, will take the road to the great German metropolis. Berlin is now having a growth as great as that of Chicago five years ago. Thousands are there in a measure unsheltered from sun and rain. Other thousands must be in want of proper food, and if there is a corresponding want of sumptuary and sanitary provisions the exact conditions most inviting to cholera must exist. If the disease becomes epidemic in Berlin there is hardly a reasonable hope that it can be kept out of Bremen and Hamburg for a long time. And once in those cities, which have almost daily communication by steamships with New York, London and Havre, we are admonished to prepare for the unwelcome visitor in this country even before the close of the present Summer.

On his way South to fill appointments to address Republican meetings in North Carolina and Virginia, Senator Wilson stopped over for a day in Philadelphia. Among others who called on him was a reporter for the Press of that city. Mr Wilson declined to be interviewed, but had no objection to a chat. The statement made by a New York reporter that he would bet and had advanced his friends money to bet on twenty five States, the Senator pronounced untrue. He never bet, didn't believe in betting and never advised any one to do so. He believed that we should have a short sharp contest, but that it would be a decided victory for the Republican party. "I have never," he added, "had any doubt, and I believe when the vote is counted the result will be like that of 1860, '64 and '68—decisive for the Republican candidates."

WASH FOR SUNBURN.—Take two drachms of borax, one drachm of Roman alum, one drachm of camphor, half an ounce of sugar candy, one pound ox gall; mix and stir well for ten minutes or so, and repeat this stirring three or four times a day for a fortnight till it appears clear and transparent. Strain it through blotting paper and bottle up for use. It is said that strawberries rubbed over the face at night will remove freckles and sunburn.

INCOMBUSTIBLE FABRICS.—Carteron and Rimmel have taken out a patent in England for the use of acetate of lime and chloride of calcium for rendering goods non-combustible. Equal weights of each are dissolved in twice their weight of hot water.

Remarkable Cure of Mr Abram Tully

San Jose, August [illegible]

DR. A. M. LORYEA & Co.—Some two years since I was taken down with Inflammatory Rheumatism and was for some time treated by two physicians but got no better. I tried nearly every remedy I heard of, but nothing seemed to do me any good, until about two weeks ago I was advised by Judge J. [illegible] to try the UNK WEED REMEDY. I procured one bottle and was entirely cured. For six weeks before taking the UNK I was compelled to go upon crutches. I consider your remedy a great blessing to suffering humanity and shall deem it my duty to inform all Rheumatics of its great virtues. [illegible] Yours etc.

TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 6 1872

TIRE TRA —For ways that are dark and tricks that are vain the heathen Chinee is pre eminent. He will match all his subtle cunning and ingenuity, and sometimes miscalculates and gets caught in his endeavors to evade a direct law. An instance of this kind occurred yesterday. While the custom house officers were searching for opium among the passengers who arrived on the bark Manilla about 25 pounds of the pure article were discovered. Knowing that discovery would be disastrous to the precious drug these heathen smugglers had taken every possible precaution to prevent detection. Several wooden chests were brought to the wharf filled with merchandise. The contents of these chests were carefully inspected, but nothing suspicious discovered. The officers were about to pass the chests by when all at once it occurred to them that it might be prudent to examine the [illegible]. This was done and resulted in discovering a number of small, thin tin boxes filled with the drug. Two bottoms—a true and a false one—were made to the chests and the opium slipped in between. These bottoms were so neatly made that it required close examination to discover the [illegible]. Chinese smugglers will learn some time that it is more wise to pay the duties on opium than to attempt to evade the law and have it all confiscated by the Government officials.

ON SIDEWALKS.—For a long time teamsters, especially express drivers and milkmen, have paid too little regard to the ordinance in relation to the driving of vehicles on the sidewalks. Generally the ordinance in this respect is not wilfully violated. Persons become careless and thoughtless and at length conclude there is but little difference between the streets and the sidewalks. There has been a growing tendency towards this state of things for some time, and which it would be well to check at once. Yesterday one of the milkmen who peddles lacteal fluid about the city was arrested on the charge of driving his wagon on the sidewalk. A few minutes before he was arrested he drove down one of the streets at a rapid pace with about one half of his vehicle on the sidewalk, and came near running over several small children who were playing. Several complaints of a similar character had been previously lodged against the same driver, so the policeman took him in charge. The case will be tried this morning.

DISASTROUS RUNAWAY.—Having occasion to go to the White House on some special business on Sunday, officer Kelly hired two horses and a buggy at the stable of L. Goddard. He transacted his business and started to return. On his way back he stopped at a house, leaving the horses securely tied to a post. While out of sight, in the house, some one slipped out and unfastened the team and started it towards the city. Finding themselves at liberty, the horses thought proper to abuse it by running away. Some distance this side of where they started, the horses ran off a steep embankment, nearly forty feet high, and the buggy was reduced to a hopeless wreck, and one of the horses so badly injured that it was necessary to kill him. The total loss will amount to several hundred dollars, as the vehicle was about as good as new, and the horse was a valuable animal.

SCOW SUNK.—The scow John Francis, while on the way up the river to this city with a load of wood, ran on a sunken snag just below the mouth of the Wallamet. At the time she was sailing under a heavy press of canvas, and the existence of the snag was not suspected until a large hole was stove in the bottom. There was on board 125 cords of wood, which did not allow the scow to sink below the top of her gunwales. The steamer Okanogan came along and drew her off the snag and towed her to the city. The craft is but slightly damaged, and the wood can all be saved.

TWO BEARS.—Two black bears came down yesterday on the evening train. Those animals weigh respectively about 250 and 300 pounds. They were captured in the Coast Range, about 12 miles west of Corvallis, when quite small, and reared as pets by their owner, Mr Frank Johnson, who now resides in East Portland. These bears are thoroughly domesticated—gentle, and docile as dogs. Hereafter they will be on exhibition at the Park at the Sunday amusements given by Messrs Waldron and Ladd.

STATEMENTS REQUESTED.—We are requested to state that all persons having assessable property should fill out the blank statements with which the Assessor furnishes them at their earliest convenience. The description of the property and its valuation is what each owner is expected to make out and hand in. As the assessment rolls are required to be completed by the 26th inst., promptness is desirable. Friday and Saturday are the days set apart by the Assessor to receive such statements.

ARRIVED.—The Spanish bark Manilla arrived here yesterday in tow of the tug Merrimac from Astoria. She had on board 425 Chinamen and a cargo of China merchandise. The Manilla is one of the largest vessels which has yet arrived at this port. She is 220 feet in length and draws 18 feet of water. Her registered capacity is about 900 tons. The Manilla was formerly an English man-of-war. Her propeller has been taken out, but the two engines still remain in the hull.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S REPORT.—Colonel A P Dennison, of this city, Adjutant General of the Oregon Militia, has prepared and submitted his report to the Governor for examination, and filed it with the State Printer for publication. We understand that Colonel Dennison recommends a considerable modification of the present militia law, placing the organization upon substantially the basis of the National Guard Militia laws of a number of other States.

FINE WHEAT.—Two samples of this season's wheat have been laid on our table. One is the well known Club, and the other Mediterranean wheat. Both these varieties were sown last fall in a mixture of soil and ashes. The heads are long, well filled, and the kernels large and plump. We have never seen finer grain raised in the State. This wheat came from the farm of S L Lovell, situated in Nehalem Valley.

THE FIRST ENGINEER.—Some days since an account was given in this paper of the first railway train which was put in successful operation in the United States. It was also stated that the engineer who run the locomotive which drew that train had been to this city. We learn that he is here now. His name is David Matthews, and he is one of the workmen employed at the Oregon Iron Works.

CELEBRATION AND BALL.—We understand that the firemen of Vancouver propose to celebrate the anniversary of the organization of the first fire company in that place on the 22d inst. The several companies of that place will join in a parade, and the exercises of the occasion will wind up with a grand ball in the evening.

DISMISSED.—The case of the State vs Lin Foy, a Chinese courtezan charged with having stolen one hundred dollars from one Charles Los on Saturday night, was examined before Judge Denny yesterday morning. There being an absence of direct evidence the Judge dismissed the action and discharged the defendant.

THROWN.—A man named Cone was thrown off a horse on Sunday afternoon at the corner of First and C streets, and his face and limbs were considerably bruised. The animal became restive, and on the rider chastising him commenced to "buck," and soon succeeded in dislodging his burden.

HELD.—John A. Rowland who was arrested at Salem and brought to this city on Friday by U S Marshal Young, has been held in the sum of one thousand dollars for his appearance as a witness in an important United States case. In default of security he has been committed to jail.

SENTENCED FOR LIFE.—Judge Upton yesterday sentenced Cornelius Gilfoy to imprisonment in the Penitentiary for the term of his natural life for the killing of William R. Wales. The prisoner will be taken to Salem to day in custody of Sheriff Caywood.

DECLINED BAIL.—The four prisoners now under arrest and indictment on the charge of being the parties who robbed the stage at Antelope Canyon on the 10th ult, have thus far declined to give bail, although admitted to the same by the court.

AT ASTORIA.—The regular term of the Circuit Court for Clatsop county will convene at Astoria next Monday morning. This will be the last week of court here, as Judge Upton will proceed to Astoria to hold court there next week.

EXCHANGED PULPITS.—Rev J R Thompson, of Olympia, who has exchanged pulpits for several weeks with Dr Lindsley of this city has arrived, and officiated in the Presbyterian Church in his place on Sunday last.

SENT UP.—Jos Jefferson the notorious petty thief and ant, was tried in Judge Denny's Court yesterday for stealing a number of articles and sent to the county jail for six months.

CONTINUED.—In the Circuit Court yesterday the case of State vs Ben Marshall for subornation of perjury—second trial—was continued to the next term.

RE [illegible].—The La[illegible] will meet at their usual place to day, Tuesday at 2 o clock. Prompt and full attendance is requested.

THE APPLICABILITY OF THE SYSTEM OF STEAM CARS

[N. Y. Sun, New Orleans Times]

For nearly three months there has been in active use on the New Orleans and Carrollton street railway between Carrollton and Napoleon avenue, a steam car invented and patented by Mr J. [illegible] the successful practicability of which has apparently been demonstrated thoroughly though a short [illegible] trial.

Although [illegible] who have continued to make daily trips have known of its existence, the inventor preferring to demonstrate his system thoroughly before urging its claims. On Saturday a circular was issued to the stockholders of the road inviting them to witness the experiment during the four days commencing on Monday, to the end that they might be prepared to vote on the question of its adoption or rejection at the meeting soon to be called for that purpose.

As the subject of propelling street cars has agitated the community for years and as many experiments have been made looking to an improvement over the present mode, it will not be inapt to give a description of the car in question and what is claimed for it.

On a four wheeled truck, about half the length of a passenger car, is erected a boiler, a tank and a double cylinder engine of five inches in diameter, and seven inches stroke. The tank is filled with about 500 gallons of water; this same water is heated at the depot at the beginning of each trip by being connected for four minutes with the stationary steam boiler. In this manner enough heat is forced into the water of the tank to enable the car to travel nine miles and have a surplus of power left at the end of each trip.

The truck containing the motive power is attached to an ordinary passenger car, and by means of a simple valve placed conveniently to the one man who performs the duties of engineer, collector and brakeman, the speed of the car is regulated, or the vehicle stopped or started as easily and promptly as could the same work be effected by the smartest mule in the county.

If necessary a speed of twenty or thirty miles an hour may be obtained. There is no escape of steam nor any noise beyond that ordinarily caused by running a passenger car, and from the satisfactory results thus far obtained it bids fair to come into general use.

As a matter of interest it may also be stated that it is claimed for this system a saving for each car of $3 13 over mule power, the actual running expenses being $1 18.

English Drinking

[From the N Y Evening Mail]

Mr Bass the celebrated English brewer, has recently made a speech for the purpose of showing the alarming increase in the use of spirits by his countrymen. The facts he states are formidable enough, certainly. They need no rhetoric to make them impressive and are sufficiently startling, one would think, to arouse something like a temperance agitation in England. Without going into details, it appears that the quantity of British spirits charged with duty for consumption at home in 1871 was 12 874,732 gallons, in Ireland 5 617,135 gallons and in Scotland 5 671,177 gallons giving a total for the United Kingdom of 24 163 044 gallons, which must have been consumed by an aggregate population of thirty one and a half millions of people. But this does not represent the whole consumption of spirits for during the same year 1 766,176 gallons of foreign spirits were imported and taken out of bonds for use, while the quantity of colonial spirits chiefly rum, similarly dealt with was 4,108 352 gallons.

This would give to every man, woman and child in the kingdom an average of over a gallon of spirits. Taking out those who are too young to drink or who are teetotallers the average for the rest is larger than the friends of temperance in England would like to admit. What is singular is that while the use of spirits has increased so largely, that of beer, which used to be pre-eminently the national drink, is just what it was four years ago. It is possible that Mr. Bass, who is not only a brewer but a member of Parliament, has been induced by this aspect of English drinking habits to parade the statistics to which we have alluded. This, however, does not affect the significance of his facts. He has said enough to set sober minded Englishmen to thinking.

What We Need when Debilitated

[illegible] at this season, and at all seasons, is a [illegible] in the digestive department. The stomach is the centre from which [illegible] to [illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] necessity for a wholesome stimulant [illegible] and restorative tonic, and consequently the direct and fruitful [illegible] combination of the three required elements. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is never more urgent than at mid summer.

It is true that a few medical bigots—fossils left over from the dark ages—recommend violent purgatives and water gruel as a cure for indigestion and its accompanying ills, but they make a few proselytes. The majority of the community are sane and all sane people are aware that a pure and powerful vegetable tonic with alterative properties, like Hostetter's Bitters, is the only cure for dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, nervousness and the "consequential damages" they inflict.

The human intellect, unless hopelessly diseased or seriously humbugged, declines to astonish the weak and human stomach with fierce cathartics that, rushing like an avalanche through the intestines, threaten to take the inner membrane with them. To use a significant phrase the knock-down and drag-out methods of treatment are played out.

It is clearly understood that a moderate stimulant is essential to the renovation of an exhausted frame, and that you cannot strengthen man or woman by depleting them with prostrating preparations. This is an era of common sense, and common sense approves of Hostetter's Bitters as the best restorative, regulating, purifying and fortifying the system, and defending it against [illegible] breathe in the [illegible].

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.--1860--X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT,

FOR MAN AND BEAST.

Probably few medicines have ever had so extensive sale, while none have been more universally beneficial than the MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT. Children, Adults, Horses and Domestic Animals are always liable to accident and it is safe to say that no family can pass a single season without some kind of an emollient being necessary. It becomes a matter of importance then to secure the best.

Over three hundred livery stables in the city of New York alone are using the MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT, in all of which it gives unusual satisfaction.

CAUTION.—The genuine is wrapped in a fine Steel Plate engraving, with G. W. Westbrook Chemist and Trade Mark MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT engraved across the face of each wrapper. The whole bears the proprietor's private United States Revenue Stamp and not a common stamp as used by druggists.

Northern Pacific Railroad.

[From the Idaho Statesman]

We published several weeks since news from Lemhi in regard to Col De Lacey's look for a route down Salmon river for the Northern Pacific railroad. This week we published a letter from Col Shoup stating that Col De Lacey had built four boats at Salmon City and was actually surveying a route down the Salmon and that another corps of engineers were surveying from the east side of the mountains into Lemhi valley. Col Shoup calls this a branch road. Either this is a mistake or the Northern Pacific company have conceived the idea of diverging at or a little east of the Rocky mountains and running the main line by Pend d'Oreille lake and a branch through Lemhi valley and down Salmon river and either follow down Snake river to the mouth or cross as soon as they get below the Blue mountains, somewhere near the mouth of the Souton and keep directly west to Walla Walla and thence by Pendleton through the Umatilla valley and on down to the Dalles. There are many reasons for believing that this is a matured plan of the company if the country is practicable for building the road. If we look at a map we will find the head waters of the Yellowstone, where the road is already mapped nearly as far south as the Salmon. It is a gradual plain from the Salmon up the Lemhi to the summit of the Rocky mountains. There are no obstacles to encounter except in descending Salmon river. In distance it would be a great saving. No route could be found so short by one or two hundred miles. There are very many small valleys along the Salmon of great value when the railroad is built and a large amount of good timber but the general character of the country is as rugged and broken as any on the coast. This route would open up the quartz mines in the central portion of our Territory and the country though so rugged and barren, would be rich in the production of gold and silver. There is much hope that this route will be adopted, and we now [illegible] our Lemhi Warren's, Camas Prairie, and Salmon river friends on the probable chances of a railroad. We shall not feel envious of our neighbors if they get a road first but wish them all the success imaginable

Under the new law the number of Internal Revenue Supervisors has been reduced from 20 to 10. California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Utah and Arizona, form one district with L M Foulke as Supervisor. Among the Supervisors whose services are dispensed with are Dr J R Bayley, of Oregon

The Grain Crop

In the July Report of the Agricultural Bureau just received returns are presented from about one thousand counties representing the heaviest corn growing sections. The returns indicate an increased yield as compared with last year of about three per cent. The report on Wheat, which is very full says that the average condition of the Wheat crop of the United States is ninety four or six per cent less than an average. The quality of the grain is uniformly superior in the Middle States. In Ohio, Michigan and Missouri and wherever inferior condition is reported, the straw is short, but the heads are generally long and well filled the kernels plump and heavy. The quality of the Southern Wheat will probably prove as fine as any ever produced in that section in threshing. The fullness of the heads in proportion to the quality of the straw, causes the yield to exceed the expectations and may go far to offset the small decrease in the reported condition. It is quite probable that the general excellence of the grain will make the present crop of equal value to that of last year. There has been an entire exemption from rust and comparatively little complaint of insects. The Hessian fly is reported in several places, more especially in the Ohio valley and the chinch bug has caused losses in many counties of Illinois, Iowa and Michigan.

A San Francisco paper says "There is a formidable combination among exporters against Friedlander whose operations have become unbearable. It is not improbable that there will be an important reaction in the price of freight, which within thirty days may fall from £4 10s to £2 10s, and increase the price of Wheat twenty five per cental" We should be glad to think this correct, but the [illegible] seem otherwise.

The Recent Changes of the Wool Market

A California journal presents an interesting article on the mutations of the Wool market during the last few months. The theory presented is that when the corner in Wool occurred last Spring, it was brought about by the operators in this article in New York and Boston. Like all speculators they reasoned that, first, the market [illegible] was in [illegible] of the supply; second, that holders could not purchase a supply sufficient to satisfy this [illegible]; third, that consumers or manufacturers had not enough in hand to supply immediate wants and must buy at any rates imposed. They failed in a correct estimate of each proposition. But the result of this calculation was to give the wool market an upward tendency which, under existing circumstances was entirely unjustifiable. The idea was promulgated that the stock in the hands of the manufacturers was short, extremely so and that they must purchase at any figures in order to keep their manufactories running. They could not of course, afford to close these vast establishments where so much money was invested and to keep them going even at a loss, they must buy wool even at whatever figures the speculators in this article chose to affix. The competition of speculators forced prices up to an almost fabulous pitch. Then came a reduction of the duty on Wool, which wise men foreseeing had taken advantage of by going to Australia and other foreign countries purchasing large quantities and starting it for the United States. This wool began to arrive and at once the bubble burst. Prices went down bringing disaster to speculators and teaching still another lesson to farmers who though offered 50 and even 55 cents for their Wool refused to sell, and would now be glad to take 30

Ankeny's Cheese Factory

It is gratifying to witness the development of any new branch of productive industry in our midst. Among the new enterprises specially deserving mention is Ankeny's Cheese Factory near Salem. Full preparations have been made and perfected for carrying on this establishment, and already thirty thousand pounds of very superior Cheese has been produced. Next year the capacity of the establishment will be largely increased and the product will amount to one hundred thousand pounds. The [illegible] is under the superintendence of an accomplished cheese maker and all the modern requirements and improvements have been provided. Messrs Ankeny have about four thousand acres of excellent land near the Santiam river and are stocking it with good cows, of which they now milk daily about one hundred and thirty. The neighbors also bring milk daily to the establishment. Quantities of this Cheese on the market here, and it is regarded with much favor. The product of the establishment this year will be fully fifty thousand pounds. All such enterprises deserve commendation and support. We doubt not that this brand of Cheese will win its way by its own excellence to general favor

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION AT PHILADELPHIA JUNE 6 1872

The Republican Party of the United States assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia on the 5th and 6th days of June 1872 again declares its faith, appeals to its history and announces its position upon the questions before the country

1 During eleven years of its ascendancy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity it criminally punished no man for political offenses and warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily [illegible] the Indians. The Pacific Railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted the public lands have been freely given to actual settlers; immigration has been protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the naturalized citizen's rights secured from European powers. In the form of National currency has been provided; repudiation frowned down; the National credit sustained under the most extraordinary burdens. It has [illegible] new bonds at lower rates of interest. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reductions from the rate of taxation the public debt has been reduced during U S Grant's Presidency at the rate of $100 000 000 per year. A great financial crisis has been averted and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised and the honor and power of the Nation kept in a high position throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future. We believe that the people will not entrust the government to any party or combination of men composed of those who chiefly have resisted every step in this beneficial progress

2 Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither the law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race creed, color or previous condition of servitude

3 The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured the amendments

4 The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty

5 Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fatally demoralizing and we therefore favor a reform of the system by a law which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position without practically creating a life tenure of office

6 We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolists and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people

7 The annual revenue after paying current debts should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt and except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors be raised by duties on importations which should be adjusted to aid in securing remunerative wages to laborers and to promote the industries and growth and prosperity of the whole country

8 We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation and the widows and orphans of those who died for the country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged and who in the line of duty became disabled without regard to length of service or the cause of such discharge

9 The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance—once a subject always a subject—having at last through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned and the American idea of the right of the individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Governments and we urge a continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration

10 The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way prepared for reductions in the rates of postage

11 Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital and for labor which creates capital the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization

12 We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13 We denounce the repudiation of public debts in any form or disguise as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt and of the rates of interest upon the balance and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment

14 The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration

15 We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land

16 The Republican party proposes to respect all rights reserved by the people to themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments. It disapproves of resorting to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government

17 It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building

18 We believe that the modest patriotism the earnest purpose, sound judgment practical wisdom incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U S Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco. Established in 18[illegible] for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated [illegible] successfully treated

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe and has resumed [illegible] at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street corner of Commercial San Francisco where his patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking new remedies and returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are dragging out a miserable existence from the effects of early indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system [illegible] at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. This horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies and see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR GIBBON a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be cautious of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be more careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz: Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue, fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to a person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he has failed to cure of this complaint by either of the San Francisco [illegible]

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions by inclosing Ten Dollars coin in a registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co. A package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of these self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tailors, shoemakers, barbers, carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry; it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus certificates, pretended patients letters etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure

ADVERTISING

Has created many a new business
Has enlarged many an old business
Has revived many a dull business
Has rescued many a lost business
Has saved many a failing business
Has preserved many a large business
And insures success in any business

GIRARD'S SECRET —Stephen Girard used to say in his old age "I have always considered advertising liberally and long to be the great medium of success in business, and the prelude to wealth. And I have made it an invariable rule to advertise in dull times as well as the busiest long experience having taught me that money thus spent is well laid out, as by continually keeping my business before the public it has secured many sales I otherwise would have lost."

ADVERTISE YOUR BUSINESS.

KEEP YOUR NAME BEFORE THE PUBLIC

JUDICIOUS ADVERTISING INSURES A FORTUNE.

IF BUSINESS IS DULL, ADVERTISE.

IF BUSINESS IS BRISK, ADVERTISE.
